2016-2017
CONCERT SERIES
Sheldon, Iowa

This is the 37th concert series coordinated by the Sheldon Civic Music Association, a nonprofit group organized to promote fine music in Northwest Iowa. Planners strive to provide a broad range of entertainment suited to family audiences.

Performance of this caliber cannot be supported by the sale of memberships alone. Thanks to our generous patrons who are identified in our concert program, membership fees can be kept at a rate affordable to most families.

Attendance is limited only by the seating capacity of the Sheldon High School Auditorium. We have reciprocity with Worthington which means that eight concerts are available for the price of ticket.

Don't miss the opportunity to experience the thrill nationally respected entertainers performing in our area. Send your membership request today!

SHELDON CONCERTS

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2016

(Sheldon H.S., 7:30pm)

Seraph Brass

The five of Seraph Brass represent a new generation of brass players.

Committed to challenging audiences with engaging and exciting programming, Seraph Brass presents a diverse body of repertoire that includes original transcriptions, newly commissioned works and well-known classics. The quintet recognizes the importance of connecting intimately with audiences and the community to creating innovative and inspiring opportunities that will help to establish a new generation of chamber music.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2016

New Odyssey

The New Odyssey experience is all encompassing.

Here is an act that is versatile, funny, novel, talented, polished, family-oriented and awesome in presentation. New Odyssey has been together for over 30 years and has performed at literally thousands of functions, always to complete satisfaction and rave reviews! This is a show you must see and hear to believe. Outstanding arrangements of almost every style are performed on 30 different musical instruments.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2017

(Sheldon H.S., 2:00pm)

Paul Asaro

Hot Stride Piano, Ragtime, Stomps, Shouts, Boogie, Jive & Vocals

Paul Asaro is known as one of the finest of a select group of pianists who still perform the demanding, two-handed piano styles from the first half of the 20th century. The Stride piano of James P. Johnson, Willie "The Lion" Smith and Fats Waller, the New Orleans styles of Jelly Roll Morton, the ragtime of Scott Joplin and Eubie Blade, stomps, boogie woogie and swing, Asaro plays them all with a fine ear for detail, blending the elements into his own personal style.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 2017

(Sheldon H.S., 7:30pm)

A Band Called Honalee

A modern-day folk trio inspired by the music and legacy of Peter, Paul and Mary.

Musically accomplished, interactive and energetic, their show allow audiences to experience this timeless music live onstage once again. The group believes the melodies and messages of the 1960s folk and folk/rock era are just as relevant today as they were when they were first sung, perhaps even more so. Their mission is to share this uniquely American music with new audiences, while rekindling the passion of life-long fans.
